Bullying and Youth Violence Summit - Friday, January 7, 2011– D’Youville College
 Student College Center, 329 Porter Avenue
 8:30AM – 1:30PM

Bullying and youth violence is a growing issue for educators, administrators, and parents alike. In the wake of recent tragic events, the Commission on Citizens’ Rights and Community Relations would like to give both students and adults a chance to discuss the issue along with successful prevention tactics so that everyone can learn in an environment free from violence.

The conference is open to educators, community leaders and parents. There will be 3 workshops, two in the AM and one following lunch. Workshops for adults will include: Cyber Bullying, Victimization and an overview on the recently passed legislation – “Dignity for All.” Lunch and a continental breakfast are included. The conference is free.

If you are interested in attending, please complete the bottom portion of this form and return by Thursday, January 6, 2011. Registration is on a first come first served basis. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact: (716) 851-8001.
